Rainbow Wellbeing Legacy Fund

Supporting our digital archive plans

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Rule Foundation website. The browser's address bar shows 'rulefoundation.nz'. The website has a green header with the 'RULE FOUNDATION' logo and navigation links for 'About us', 'Our Funds', 'Peters Story', and 'Contact us'. Below the header, a paragraph states: 'The Rule Foundation seeks to advance the health, wellbeing and visibility of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex (LGBTI) New Zealanders. We administer Funds that provide grants for activities that support LGBTI people, and for education and research on LGBTI issues.'

A central heading reads 'FUNDING AVAILABLE THROUGH THE RULE FOUNDATION'. Below this, two fund cards are displayed:

- The PETER RULE Fund: The Peter Rule Fund was founded from the estate of Peter Rule in 1987. The focus of this fund is on activities that advance the general health, wellbeing and visibility of the LGBTI community as well as for education and research initiatives. Grants from this fund are usually between $250 – $5000. Applications are open all year around. Read More
- The RAINBOW WELLBEING LEGACY Fund: The Rainbow Wellbeing Legacy fund was founded in 2019 through a $1 million endowment from the New Zealand Government in recognition of the men who were convicted for consensual homosexual activities pre-1986. The focus of this fund is to support activities that focus on improving mental health outcomes for future generations of rainbow communities, especially young people. Read More

Our digital archive plans

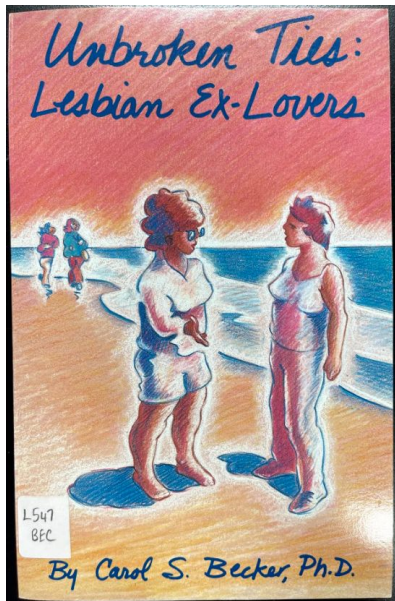

The Transcribathon is a key first step in our journey
